THE DISCOVERY OF THE AGE

NO material which has ever been discovered has effected greater benefits in the household economy than

McGIMSEY'S MAGIC SOAP.

It is a labor saving invention as well as an invaluable remedy for [illegible] eruptions of the skin and piles. Dandruff is removed from the head, the teeth whitened and cleansed, plate and jewelry cleaned, stains effectually removed from carpets, furniture, clothes, paint, varnish, etc. It is a great saving of time and labor in washing clothes. It is the only known soap which will wash flannels with the ease of cotton or linen without fulling or shrinking. All these important objects can be effected without injury to the skin or the most delicate fabric. It possesses no deleterious qualities whatever. The world is challenged to produce a soap which possesses so many valuable properties, and which is so innocuous and safe. It is a home invention, and defies competition in any part of the world. It has become a necessity in Memphis and its use is rapidly spreading throughout the South, and eventually will extend over the Yankee States North and South America, Europe, Asia, Africa and Oceanica. Manufactured solely by T. P. McGIMSEY, Memphis, Tenn, and can soon be found at any respectable family grocery or drug store. The proprietor is determined that its manufacture shall keep pace with the rapidly extending demand for its use.

VICKSBURG, Miss., OCTOBER 4, 1867.—In consequence of the prevalence of Yellow Fever in the city of Vicksburg, we feel compelled, by the duty we owe to ourselves, our families, and employees, to postpone the second Preliminary Distribution of the Mississippi Agricultural, Educational and Manufacturing Aid Society from the 18th day of October to the 3d of November, 1867.

To give our patrons and the public at a distance the necessary time for renewal of certificates, the Third Preliminary Distribution will be drawn November 30th, and the Grand Scheme December 28th, 1867.

We trust that a kind and indulgent public will both excuse and approve of the short postponement.

Correspondents and persons ordering certificates are requested to direct their communications to the Secretary at Meridian, Miss., to which place our office is temporarily removed. An authorized agent will remain at Vicksburg to attend to any communications or orders for certificates.

IMPORTANT LEGAL DECISION.

Opinion of Attorney General Caldwell on Liability of the State for the Debts of Railroads.

He Decides that the State is not Liable.

OFFICE OF PRESIDENT, NASHVILLE AND CHATTANOOGA, AND NASHVILLE AND NORTHWESTERN RAILROADS, NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE, October 17, 1867.

To His Excellency, William G. Brownlow, Governor of Tennessee:

SIR: I have the honor to submit for your opinion the question of the liabilities of the State for debts contracted by railroads in the hands of Receivers. In our business relations with different roads throughout the State there is frequently a balance due us. We therefore desire to ascertain upon whom the responsibility rests—whether the State is liable for the debts of roads managed by Receivers, or the road itself alone liable. This is a matter of no little importance to us, as our business with some roads amounts often to a considerable sum. I would respectfully request that at your earliest convenience you will give this subject attention, and inform me of the decision arrived at in the matter.

I remain your Excellency's obedient servant.

M. BURNS, President.

SHELBYVILLE, TENN., Nov. 7, 1867.

Governor William G. Brownlow:

SIR: After a careful investigation of the question submitted by M. Burns, Esq., as to the liability of the State for contracts made by Receivers appointed by your Excellency for railroads in this State that have failed to pay the interest accruing on the bonds, my opinion is that the State is not liable for contracts made by such Receivers for said railroads. The law requiring you to appoint Receivers, and governing them after their appointment, does not, by the most latitudinous construction, confer any power on the Receiver to create debts for which the State would be liable. It only allows him to take possession of said road, and collect its "rents, issues and profits," and out of such "rents, issues and profits," after paying the expenses and costs incident to the proceedings, he is to pay the interest that is due on said bonds. As an incident to his place, he may, perhaps, make necessary repairs upon the roads and rolling stock. By the appointment of a Receiver, the charter of said corporation is not forfeited. The State only seeks to control the receipts of the road, and the officers may do many things that they could do before a Receiver was appointed. They are prohibited from any control of the money or moneys accruing to the road, yet they are not deprived of their offices or privileges, only so far as they may conflict with the powers of the Receiver. It is evident that at the time our railroad system was put on foot, no such state of affairs as now exists was contemplated by the Legislature, and no power has yet been given by the Legislature to receivers to make contracts for the benefit of their roads for which the State would be liable.

In a case of such doubtful policy, and where so much power for evil could be wielded by one man, I would be slow to decide that a Receiver could contract for the State, unless the law was so clear and unmistakable that there could be no doubt on the subject. In my opinion, the Legislature no where intended to confer this right upon the Receiver. He is really but the fiscal agent for the State to collect the interest due on the bonds, and whatever contracts he may make for the benefit of the company must be liquidated by the company, and not by the State.

Very respectfully,

THOS. H. COLDWELL, Attorney General.

Prisoners Sentenced—All the Indictments Disposed of.

WASHINGTON, November 12.—Senor Murrillo to-day delivered his credentials as Envoy from the United States of Colombia. The usual complimentary speeches were made.

The practice which has prevailed with certain parties of using for private purposes envelopes stamped with signatures of Government officials is to be terminated by the application of legal penalties against offenders.

According to a private letter received from that quarter, it is proposed to sell the islands of St. Thomas and St. John for four to five million dollars in gold—the exact sum not stated. It is further said an arrangement or treaty provides that the sale is dependent on a majority of the inhabitants, which, it is supposed, will be secured. M. Debilier, recently Secretary of the Danish Legation, is here awaiting the result of the vote.

The Postmaster General transmitted to the President, for approval, two postal treaties recently concluded between the United States and Switzerland and the North German Union, including Prussia.

The attendants at the contemplated prize fight, arrested to-day, were, after reaching the city of Alexandria, marched into jail. About twenty blacks were among the number. The reading of the law was called for by one person, by which it appears that the riot act is required to be read before arrests can be made, which was not done in this case; therefore, the military and civil authorities released the entire party, after a course of lectures.

NEW YORK, November 13.—Fernando Wood was nominated for Mayor by the Mozart Democracy last evening.

Gold, 139¾. Cotton unchanged.

PARIS, November 12—Midnight.—The report of the resignation of Marquis de La Valette, Minister of the Interior, is confirmed. The Emperor has appointed M. Pinard his successor. M. Pierre Megnan has also been appointed Minister of Finance.

MANCHESTER, November 12.—The prisoners Robert Featherstone and Gould were brought before the Commission to-day, and were each sentenced to five years' imprisonment. All of the indictments have been disposed of. The special commission for the trial of the Manchester rioters was dissolved.

FLORENCE, November 12.—The Gazette publishes the text of the diplomatic note from Prime Minister Minabrea, which declares that the suppression of the temporal power of the Pope is indispensible to the maintenance of good relations between Italy and France.

FRANKFORT, November 12—p.m.—Bonds, 76⅜.

LIVERPOOL, November 12—p.m.—Cotton heavy and declined; sales, 8,000 bales; middling uplands, 8⅝d; Orleans, 8¾d. The Manchester market is dull with a declining tendency. Wheat, 7s for California white; 12s 10d for No. 1 Milwaukee red; Corn, new mixed Wisconsin, steady at 48s 9d.

MONTGOMERY, November 13.—In the Reconstruction Convention, the whole day was consumed in considering the franchise question. The majority report, which embraces strong presumptive features, will be adopted.

NEW YORK, November 13—12 m.—Gold opened at 139¾; at 11 a.m. was 139⅝, and is now 139⅝. Cotton dull and unchanged. Exchange steady.

EDITORIAL

THURSDAY, : : : : : NOVEMBER 14, 1867

THERE is a spirit abroad in the South which affects to despise everything begotten and born outside its own sphere. There are those amongst us who, believing that no good can come out of Nazareth, underrate and decry the effect of the recent elections in the North. So far as their immediate effect is concerned, the late elections were barren of results. Ours is a Government of majorities, and masses always act slowly. But when the spirit of reform is once awakened, there is no extraneous power which can stay its course. Revolutions never go backwards. There is a spirit of conservatism in the Northern mind which has borne, in uncomplaining patience, a thousand thrusts at the national life. It has seen Constitution and laws overborne in the madness of revolution and party strife. During the recent war, measures in flagrant violation of the Constitution were adopted, against the feeble protests of the Democratic party. The people of the South saw all this, and reasoned that a people so blatant in the pursuit of unconstitutional theories could never be brought to understand the true meaning and import of the instrument itself. We believed our cause a just and holy one, and charity suggests that those who honestly differed with us were as candid as we. The result proves the correctness of our reasoning. The principles which HAMILTON breathed into the old Federal party obtained largely in the North. There were honest, brave and true men, who believed the union of these States to be a political indestructibility. We of the South believed differently, and referred the matter in controversy to the arbitrament of arms. The fortunes of war have been adverse to us, and for all practical purposes the question is definitively settled. The smoke and dust has lifted from the arena of combat, and to-day the South stands before the world a disarmed and conquered people. The Democratic party of the North, bearing upon her front the arms and trophies of many a well fought field, becks us on to liberty and equality in the Federal Union. Shall we perpetuate the heart burnings and bitter memories of the past by refusing to coalesce and co-operate with our only natural and proper allies? We are powerless to prevent the consummation of all the nefarious ends which the Radical party seeks to compass. Our only hope of escape from the terrors of anarchy and military misrule lies in the strong arms and unblenching spirits of the SEYMOURS, THURMANS, PENDLETONS, DOOLITTLES, DIXONS, COWANS and PLANDREAUS of the North. Their trenchant blades are already dyed to the hilt in traitorous gore, and the ancient slogans of the party lure us to the combat. Who says that liberty is dead knows not the spirit of the American people. Triumphant over all, it yet lives, and will gladden the hearts of millions of free, white men, when the Goths and Vandals, who are industriously tugging at its foundations, moulder in forgotten graves.

THE Committee on Impeachment cannot find the evidence on which they can present a bill of indictment; but it is said that the minority will make a report, and thus the question will be brought before the House of Representatives. What will the House do with the report? Will they receive it? If so, that will be a sanction of the measure, and the initiatory step towards forming a true bill. But after the House has found the bill of indictment, there is no positive assurance that the Senate will be so reckless as to cast their votes for the measure. We are of the opinion that the President will not be impeached. It will be in direct opposition to the expressed will of the Northern people, and the Congress that will disregard the voice of their own sovereigns must be mad indeed, and be willing to destroy the Union to accomplish their own selfish designs.

RECENTLY it has been the custom of Congress to appoint committees to inquire if Maryland, Kentucky and other States that had given Democratic majorities had "republican forms of government, that Congress could indorse," and one of those committees is now in session, playing the farce of inquiring whether they shall admit the representatives of Kentucky. Another committee will be needed for California, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and several other States, for none of those States have governments that can be indorsed by the present corrupt Congress.

[The great] struggle is over in Mississippi, but whether the urgent measures with which Congress proposes to stifle the liberty of the people and crush out intelligence in the South have been carried out according to their wishes is very questionable. The vote in Tishomingo county, which is one of the most populous, was very small; and if it is an index of the remainder of the State, the Convention is defeated by a large majority. The bill under which the election was held required half of the registered voters to vote to make the law effective. Tishomingo had 3,125 registered voters, and there have been only 640 votes cast out of that number, being only about one-fifth of the registered voters; and according to the law, the people gave a non-action vote of 2,485 against Convention. It is supposed that the negroes and Radicals had about 20,000 majority of the registered voters in the State; therefore, if this majority can be reduced 10,100 the State will not have a Convention. The result in Tishomingo shows that this county alone has reduced that majority two-thirds, leaving only 7,615 to be gained to defeat the Convention; which, we trust, will be made up in the remainder of the State. Should this be the case, there will be no assembly at Jackson of "white, gray and black" spirits, proposing to abolish the State Government, as the convention has done which is now in session at Montgomery, for Alabama. The State officers elected by the express will of the people will not be unceremoniously kicked out of their positions by an assembly of renegades and negroes, and their places filled with designing, dishonest, trading, unprincipled demagogues. If the Convention should be defeated, Mississippi will have to be prescribed for again by Congress, to cause her to "throw up" the liberty that seems to set so firmly on her stomach, or left to the military rule.

WE are indebted to the kindness of a friend for a copy of the late admirable address of the Hon. JOSEPH W. TAYLOR, of Greene county, Alabama, on "the situation." Colonel TAYLOR is one of the representatives elect to the "rump" Congress from Alabama. For powers of oratory and comprehensive statesmanship he is only equalled by the lategifted YANCEY. His views are thoroughly national, and commend themselves to the conservative spirit of the country, North and South. An uncompromising Unionist, as long as the Union was worth the name, he now stands in the front rank of those who have thrown themselves in the breach to stay the fell spirit of fanaticism. But for the crowded condition of our columns we would be glad to publish the speech entire. We shall give extracts hereafter.

Nine hundred and ninety millions of men use tobacco.

The New York Tribune makes the Democratic majority in that State about 48,000.

The Star learns from official quarters that the newly fledged Cabinet rumors have no substantial foundation.

Seth W. Payne left New York this morning, proposing to walk to San Francisco in one hundred and fifty days.

The trial of Garibaldi has been postponed, it being considered doubtful whether any of the courts here have jurisdiction in his case.

A "professor" who dives from a highth of two hundred feet, in water only ten feet deep, is the last London sensation.

There are only six deaths annually for each five hundred whites in the United States.

General McClellan will not return to this country until next spring. The General will then resume his former business as an engineer.

A Southern barber recently shaved twelve men in twenty-five minutes, and claims the tonsorial championship.

The London churches are introducing the harp in their choir—not the one of "a thousand strings."

There are fifteen thousand printers in this country, of which about six thousand belong to the Unions.

It is believed in Washington that the repeal of the cotton tax will be among the first acts of Congress at the approaching session. Strong Northern influences are urging the repeal.

The Republicans have sixty-two members of the Wisconsin Assembly, and the Democrats thirty-eight. The Republican majority on the State ticket is about 5,000.

The Democrats should be content with their victory in Maryland. From Governor to constables they make a clean sweep through the entire State. The Legislature is unanimously Democratic.

Boasting of a visit he had made to the Queen, at Winsor, a Yankee clinched his remarks by declaring: "I should have been invited to dinner, but that it was washing day."

The trial of General Cole, at Albany, New York, for the murder of L. Harris Hiscox, has been postponed till the next term of the Court of Oyer and Terminer, owing to the absence of a material witness.

Henry Bishop's little son, while playing in his father's yard at Bridgeport, Connecticut, on Friday, fell into the fountain, and was drowned. The boy was a grandson of C. S. Mallory, of Florida, Secretary of the Confederate Navy.

At a recent meeting of the Washington National Monument Association, it was resolved that a committee be appointed to take into consideration the question of raising funds for the completion of the monument, to report upon any plans suggested, and prepare an appeal to Congress.

The wife of a small farmer at Pierrelongue, France, has been safely delivered of three girls. Fifteen months since she had given birth to twins, having two other children previously, and all girls. The husband is not a small farmer in some respects.

A young man in Machias, Maine, was caught in the act of smuggling liquor and selling it in a black bag, selling a bottle of brandy for $2 50. He was sentenced to jail for thirty days and fined $10. The justice took the black bag, saying he would pour it out in his back yard, but a self-constituted committee who visited the premises the next day "couldn't smell it."

The question, whether a railroad company which has printed on its tickets that it is not responsible for more than one hundred dollars' worth of baggage, can be made to indemnify a traveler for a lost trunk, has again been settled against a railroad company in Brooklyn. The judge held that in the hurry of travel a party was not to be held responsible for reading all the printed matter that might be stuck at him through a ticket window on the back of his ticket.

The Prussian military authorities have just published the first of five portions of the work forming the history of the campaign of 1866. This section contains an account of the diplomatic relations, preparations for war, concentration and position of the army operations against Hanover and electoral Hesse. There are also supplementary chapters containing orders of battle, returns of the effective, and an account of the troops conveyed by railway.

Boyd & Co., solicitors of patents, No. 208 Pine street, St. Louis, Missouri, report for the AVALANCHE the following patents granted Tennessee, Kentucky, Mississippi and Louisiana inventors, for the week ending November 5, 1867. J. H. Merritt, Memphis, Tennessee, cotton bale tie; B. Paine, McMinville, Tennessee, medical compound; S. H. Whitaker, Covington, Kentucky, apparatus for casting car wheels; M. Collis, Milton, Kentucky, horse hay fork; P. Higden, Lewisport, Kentucky, hoisting apparatus; S. Wherry, Louisville, Kentucky, brick machine; B. W. Collins, Oxford, Mississippi, combined tool; J. W. Judge Sharswood left his seat on the bench of the District Court, Monday, after serving upon it for twenty-three years, to assume his place on the bench of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

The St. Louis Democrat thus cautiously refers to a news item, travelling the rounds of the press, committing it to the support of General Grant for the Presidency: "We prefer to wait until we see what course Congress pursues, and what action General Grant takes in certain contingencies, and until then, see no necessity of taking any new position on the subject."

Monroe county, Kentucky, is to vote again on the question of subscribing $400,000 to the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad. The former vote only lacked two votes of being a three-fifths vote. Mr. Oliver Beirne, a wealthy gentleman of Monroe county, is said to have assured the agents of the road that the road should not stop even if his county did not subscribe the $200,000 required of her, as in that event he would take the whole amount himself—and he is able to do it.

On the 2d instant the steamer Osippee experienced a terrific hurricane about forty miles off Archangel, and was nearly wrecked, losing all her boats and a number of sails. Her chronometers were destroyed, and fires put out, and she shipped on an immense sea, damaging the powder in the magazine. General Rousseau and staff were on board at the time. The hurricane swept over the harbor with great violence, and several vessels were badly damaged, and some driven ashore. A number of houses were prostrated throughout the city, but no lives were lost.

FRENCH MEDICINES PREPARED BY GRIMAULT & COMPANY

Chemists to His Imperial Highness Prince Napoleon.

THESE different medicines represent the most recent medical discoveries, founded on the principles of chemistry and therapeutics. They must not be confounded with secret or quack medicines, as their names sufficiently indicate their composition; a circumstance which has caused them to be appreciated and prescribed by the faculty in the whole world. They widely differ from those numerous medicines advertised in the public papers as able to cure every possible disease, as they are applicable only to but a very few complaints. The most stringent laws exist in France with regard to the sale of medical preparations, and only those which have undergone an examination by the Academy of Medicine, and have been proved efficacious, either in the hospitals or in the practice of the first medical men, are authorized by the government. This fact must be a guarantee for the excellency of Messrs. GRIMAULT & CO.'S medicines.

Dr. Leras' (Doctor of Medicine) Liquid Phosphate of Iron.

The newest and most efficacious remedy in cases of CHLOROSIS, PAINS IN THE STOMACH, DIFFICULT DIGESTION, DYSMENORRHEA, ANEMIA, GENERAL DEBILITY and POORNESS OF BLOOD. It is particularly recommended to regulate the functions of nature, and to all ladies of delicate constitution, as well as to persons suffering under any kind of debility whatever. It is the preservative of health in all warm and relaxing climates.

No More Cod Liver Oil—Grimault's Syrup o Iodized Horse Radish.

This medicine has been administered with the utmost success in the hospitals of Paris. It is a perfect substitute for COD LIVER OIL, and has been found most beneficial in DISEASES OF THE CHEST, SCROFULA, LYMPHATIC DISORDERS, GREEN SICKNESS, MUSCULAR ATONY and LOSS OF APPETITE. It regenerates the constitution in purifying the blood, it being the most powerful depurative known. It has been applied with happy results in DISEASES OF THE SKIN. Further, it will be found to be of great benefit to young children subject to HUMORS and OBSTRUCTION OF THE GLANDS.

Consumption Cured—Grimault's Syrup of Hypophosphite of Lime.

This new medicine is considered to be a sovereign remedy in cases of PHTHISIS and other DISEASES OF THE LUNGS. It promptly removes all the most serious symptoms. The cough is relieved, night perspirations cease, and the patient is rapidly restored to health.

N. B.—Be sure to see that the signature of GRIMAULT & CO. is affixed to the bottle, as this syrup is liable to imitation.

No More Difficult or Painful Digestion—Dr. Burin du Buisson's (Laureate of the Paris Imperial Academy of Medicine) Digestive Lozenges.

This delicious preparation is always prescribed by the most reputed medical men in France in cases of derangements of the digestive functions, such as GASTRITIS, GASTRALGIA, LONG AND LABORIOUS DIGESTION, wind in the stomach and bowels, EMACIATION, JAUNDICE and COMPLAINTS OF THE LIVER AND LOINS.

Nervous Headaches, Neuralgia, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Instantly Cured by Grimault's Guarana.

This vegetable substance, which grows in the Brazils, has been employed since time immemorial to cure INFLAMMATION OF THE BOWELS. It has proved of late to be of the greatest service in cases of CHOLERA, as it is a preventive and a cure in cases of Diarrhea.

Ferro Manganic Powder, prepared by Burin du Buisson, approved by the Academy of Medicine in Paris.

A small quantity of this powder in a glass of water is sufficient to obtain instantly an effervescing mineral and gaseous water to be drank at meals, either pure or mixed with wine.

It is a most valuable medicine for persons suffering from Chlorosis, Stomach Aches, and for Ladies suffering from Difficult or Irregular Menstruation. It is especially recommended to persons unable to digest the ordinary medicines containing iron. This celebrated preparation has the advantage to prevent all tendency to constipation, and to contain a certain portion of manganese, considered by the most eminent medical men as indispensable in cases of treatment by ferruginous medicines.

No More Copaiba and Cubebs—Grimault's Capsules and Liquid Extract of Matico Vegetalis.

Where all other medicines have failed, these preparations will always effect a cure. They insure rapid and extraordinary cure of severe, recent and chronic cases of private diseases. They are used in the hospitals of Paris by the celebrated Dr. Ricord, and are found greatly superior to all hitherto known mineral remedies and copaiba and cubebs. The injection is used in recent and capsules in the more obstinate cases.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Our city patrons are requested not to pay any one for subscriptions to the AVALANCHE without a certificate from the office authorizing them to collect.
GALLAWAY, REHA & CLUSKEY.

COMMENCED.—The trial of James T. Creighton and John Reagan commenced at Jackson yesterday.

WARRANT.—A warrant was issued by Esquire Miller yesterday for the arrest of one John Dalley, charged with stealing a dray.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Thos. Conner, a well known "ladies man," and good actor, is in town. We understand he goes to Nashville to fulfill an engagement.

THE LOCK GAME.—A man named Dutterfield was beat out of $150 near the race course yesterday. He complained to the police, but as yet the sharper has escaped.

THE TALE OF ENCHANTMENT.—The preparations for this spectacular piece are progressing, and it will certainly be produced to-night. We shall be there to see it.

DISCHARGED.—The jury in the case of William Saunders, a member of the "mackerel brigade," charged with larceny, were unable to agree, and have been discharged.

COMMITTED.—Henry McDonald, an account of whose shooting another negro named Taylor, on Sunday, we gave some days ago, was yesterday taken before Esquire Miller, who sent him to jail in default of $1,000.

NOT NECESSARY.—It is not necessary for us to say that the Dr. C. referred to, in the communication of Justice, yesterday morning, was not Dr. Creighton. This large hearted gentleman could be guilty of no such meanness.

SUPREME COURT.—The Supreme Court commenced its session in Jackson yesterday morning. It was to have met earlier, but owing to the non-arrival of more than two Judges, the session did not commence till yesterday.

A SPECIMEN.—As a specimen of the demands for charity, made upon the Howard Association, we were informed yesterday that a woman waited upon the President, and coolly asked him if he could not give her enough money out of its funds to purchase a cooking stove.

CRIMINAL COURT.—Wm. Hunter, Judge. The case of the State vs. C. Cunningham, et al, indictment for burglary, etc., was not concluded on yesterday, and the Court adjourned over till to-day. Other jail cases will be taken up at the conclusion of the above.

ATTENTION, SONS OF TEMPERANCE.—The officers and members of Young Men's Division, No. 60, are hereby notified to be at their hall at nine o'clock, to attend the funeral of our brother, C. H. Norris, to be buried at the Winchester cemetery. Sister Divisions are requested to attend.
WM. CHAMBERS, W. P.
HENRY CLEMMONS, R. S.

RECONSTRUCTION.—We saw a negro come into car No. 8 on the Hernando line, yesterday, and sit down among the passengers without any objection being made, except by one gentleman, who got up and left the cars. We wish to know if the railway company have instructed their conductors to allow this. If they have, the people will soon let the company and the negroes run the cars.

PERFUMERY.—Ward & Le Guere yesterday received, direct from France, an importation of perfumery, soaps, etc. This is one of the largest and most complete drug houses in the city, and anything in the drug line can always be found at their emporium. Those wishing drugs, toilet articles, perfumery, soaps, or in fact anything in that line will do well to call on Ward and Le Guere, corner of Main and Adams street.

A darkey entered a well known bookstore yesterday, and asked to have his tooth pulled. The mercantile gentleman requested him to walk back, and the required operation should be performed. The darkey looked rather bewildered upon the books and stationery for some time, than turned round and said: "Dis don't look like a tooth store. I speck I'se in de wrong place," and then walked abruptly off.

C. C. CLEAVES & Co.—The best place in the city to get law books, school books or stationery, is at C. C. Cleaves & Co.'s, No. 312 Second street, corner of Monroe. Their stock of pen knives, gold pens, stationery and miscellaneous literature is complete, while every lawyer can fill his library with the best standard works from their stock. Read their advertisement in another column, and then be sure to go there, and see if we are not correct in what we say.

RACES! RACES! RACES!—Three magnificent races to be run to-day, as follows: The Lost Stake, $400, three entries; the Banker's purse, $1,000, four entries; and a purse of one hundred dollars, for two year olds. This is the most attractive bill offered this week—a good time may be expected. Owing to the number of races for the day they will commence promptly at two o'clock. The Lost Stake, is two mile heats; Banker's purse, three mile heats, for which are entered four first class race horses.

Just received by Joseph Locke, 22 Jefferson street, AVALANCHE building, Godey's Lady's Book for December, also Peterson's Magazine, Harper's Bazar of Fashion for the 23d, London News, La Crosse Democrat, Chimney Corner, Wilkes' Spirit of the Times, Waverley Magazine, Southern Society, Army and Navy Journal, Saturday Mercury, Pleasant Hours for December, Budget of Fun and the Phunny Phellow; also keeps on hand books, stationery, etc., etc. Give him a call.

LAW COURT.—James O. Pierce, Judge. The trial docket was called on yesterday from case No. 1,700 to No. 2,474. To-day the call will be made from No. 2,474, and the docket will be probably called through. 126 judgments were taken on yesterday. Next Friday and Saturday will be motion days. On Saturday Chancellor Smith will preside in this Court, and all cases will be called in which Judge Pierce is incompetent.

MUNICIPAL COURT.—George W. Waldran, Judge. The cases set for trial to-day are as follows:
207 to 221. The State vs. Ross Lovejoy.
FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 15.
The State vs. John Enson, larceny.
In the case of Thomas O. Smith, the defendant's counsel on yesterday moved to quash the indictment, which motion was argued and submitted to the Court. A decision will be given to-day.

EMMONS & SON, No. 10 Jefferson street, and 393 Main street, have received more of Madam Demorest's fashions for fall and winter of 1867-8, and have received another supply of Harper's Bazar; also True Flag, American Union, London News, Southern Society, London Punch, New York Mercury, Fire Side Companion, Italian Paper, German Leslie, Army and Navy Journal, The Yankee Wanderer for December, Metropolitan Record, Day Book, Round Table, Scottish American, Police Gazette, Police News, Courier Etats Des Unis, Observer, Rural New Yorker, Gleason's Companion, Staats Zeitung, Scientific American, Peterson's Magazine for December, and dailies from everywhere.

SUBURBAN.—The sale of lots on Poplar street extended, and Union and Central avenues, by N. M. Trezevant, will commence at twelve o'clock to-day, on lot No. 1, opposite the residence of Colonel N. F. Avery. Terms of the sale, one-tenth cash, the balance in ten annual payments, bearing six per cent. interest. For the timbered land, personal security will be required on the first note. Here is the rarest opportunity ever offered to buy Memphis suburban property. Every man should be able to secure a home on these terms, as the length of time between payments, and then only in small amounts, will enable him to meet each one without embarassment. Conveyances leave their office from nine to eleven o'clock. Royster, Trezevant & Co., auctioneers.

CHANCERY COURT.—William M. Smith, Chancellor. The following orders were entered on yesterday:
Robert E. Smith et al vs Thomas S. Hicks, final decree.
Mary L. Poston, exet'x, vs W. R. Poston et al, order appointing Commissioners.
W. D. McCallum et al, vs John F. McCallum et al, order appointing Commissioners.
Thomas Hill vs Caroline Bull et al, final decree.
Martha E. Reid et al vs Margaret J. Reid, order appointing Commissioners.
The hearing docket will not be taken up until the adjournment of the special term of the Supreme Court now in session at Jackson, Tennessee. Solicitors who are present can by agreement have the cases heard.

PERSONAL.—Commodore T. Dean, of New York city, is in the city, stopping at the Overton.
Judge William J. Jones of Linden, Arkansas, died at that place, on the 31st ultimo. His wife a week previous.
George Washington, a well known lawyer, has been quite ill for some time but is, we are glad to learn, recovering.
Mrs. Colonel N. L. Duff died at her residence yesterday morning.
Miss Hoten died on Tuesday, and was buried yesterday.
Mr. C. H. Morris, for a long while connected with the Temperance order of this city, died about twelve o'clock yesterday. He will be buried to-day with all the solemnity of the order.
S. N. Williams, a member of the Metropolitan police force of this city, died at eight o'clock yesterday morning and was buried in the afternoon by a portion of the force.
Captain Sam. S. Hale, of Cincinnati, is in the city, stopping at the Overton.

FORTUNE'S FAVORITE—A LUCKY TICKET HOLDER.—The temple of fortune, even in this hard, practical, matter of fact age, is still open to those who have courage to worship at her shrine. We not unfrequently find men who seem to have a surer hold upon the fickle goddess than was ever gained in the laboratory of the philosopher. An instance of the kind has just come to our knowledge. On the 16th of last month a ticket was sold by Murray, Eddy & Company, managers of the Kentucky State Lottery, located at Covington, Kentucky, to one of their correspondents in Philadelphia. In due time the drawing took place, under the management of the firm we have named, and, like all their business, under the guarantee of fairness provided in the laws of the State, and which have won for the Kentucky Lottery Managers so high a reputation for upright dealing. The Philadelphia purchaser of the ticket referred to—a well known citizen, whose name is withheld at his request, as all the business of Messrs. Murray, Eddy & Company is held in the strictest confidence—finds himself to-day the lucky possessor of the capital prize, a handsome fortune of fifty thousand dollars, which amount has been promptly remitted to him. Such an instantaneous jump to wealth is well calculated to bring back in memory old world stories of fairy gifts; yet almost every week we hear of similar results of lucky speculations in the Kentucky drawings.—[Covington (Kentucky) Leader, November 8.

THE RACES.

The First Meeting Under the Auspices of the Turf Congress.

Third Day—Wednesday, November 13.

Another beautiful day was yesterday, and if the association had been given the selection of the weather they could not have improved upon the kind we are now having for all outside door exercises. The crowd of spectators was not so large as the day before, neither did the ladies turn out so well, but those present were select, and fully participated in the excitements of the scene. This can be accounted for by the comparatively small attractions offered. This, however, was no fault of the association, but of the horse owners on the ground. It was indeed strange that a purse of $600 could get but one entry among over sixty horses now in the stables on the track, but it was nevertheless so. The track was in good condition, and the record yesterday shows that it was "fast." We have said before, and we say it again, that ere many seasons have elapsed the Memphis Association track will be among the "fastest" in the country. The record of yesterday throws the "Woodlawn," of Louisville, behind, and under the present management of the course it will not be long before some more of the "fast" tracks will have to come under. After the first heat of the first race President Donovan announced that the Association would give a purse of one hundred dollars for three year olds, the entries to be made immediately, and the race to be run after the purse for the three mile dash had been transferred to the owner of "Mary Wynne," the only entry for it. An effort was then made to get up the race, and two of the entries were secured, but it stalled on the third, the owners not being able to agree among themselves, and the matter fell through. The Association deserves great credit for this voluntary offer on their part, as there was no entrance money demanded, and it was only made to enhance the pleasure of the people assembled on the track, and that it fell through was no fault of theirs.

In the pool selling for the citizens' purse "Counterproof" had the call three to one over the field, the next in favor being "Nelly Gwyn," but between her and "Chicamauga" the difference was so slight that she can scarcely be entitled to a second place. A great deal of "hedging" was done on "Chicamauga" and "Nelly," but most bettors justly had among their cards one or more that bore the name of "Counterproof."

The first and only race was the citizens' purse of $500, two mile heats, best three in five, which closed with three entries. On stripping, the horses were perfect beauties. "Chicamauga's" silken coat glistening in the sun as if it were covered with gold, and "Counterproof" moving along, the admired of all for his fine proportions, and, indeed, he looked every inch the race horse he is, while the gentle "Nelly" seemed as gentle and quiet as a sheep until she heard her competitor's approach, when the noble blood within her stirred, and she could scarcely be held. Yesterday, as each previous day, when the hand upon the dial pointed to two o'clock, the bell was heard ringing for the

FIRST RACE.

In the start, for the first heat, the horses were placed thus: "Counterproof" had the fence, "Nelly Gwyne" the center, and "Chicamauga" the outside. Considerable difficulty was occasioned in getting the horses to the score on account of the restiveness of "Chicamauga," but they were finally got together, and a good start was obtained, with "Nelly" in the lead by about half a length, but this she was not allowed to hold for any length of time, for "Counterproof," before the first turn from the starting point had been made, went for her, was not to be denied, and passed her before the race was twenty seconds old. In the start "Counterproof" had the last place, but he flew past both horses like a streak, and took the lead and kept it. "Chicamauga" had the second place in the opening, but, like the lady "Nell," had to give way to "Counterproof;" but he took his revenge out of the gallant gray, and gave her the go-by as they passed the first quarter. The horses were now drawn out in a string, "Counterproof" leading and "Nelly" closing the file, with about two lengths of daylight between the horses. At the third quarter "Nelly" made a break for "Chickamauga," and passed him cleverly, and coming up the home stretch made a brush for "Counterproof," but could do nothing with him. When they came under the string, for the first mile, the "Colloseus" horse was about three lengths ahead of "Chicamauga." The first mile was made in 1:50. In this position the horses swung again around the circle, and the only change we could notice was that the rider of "Chicamauga" allowed such a gap to get between him and the leading horse, that it took all he could do, with the assistance of whip and spur, to keep himself from being shut out. In this mile there was not a single brush made for "Counterproof," and he came under the string an easy winner, by about six lengths ahead of "Nelly," with "Chicamauga" just past the distance post. Time, 3:42.

SECOND HEAT.

The same difficulty occurred in getting a start for this heat, as in the previous one, but they were finally got off with the best start of the season. In position the horses were placed as in the first heat. After a few jumps "Chicamauga" took the lead, and cut in to the fence, just ahead of the other two, and kept the lead well until after passing the first quarter, when "Counterproof" thought it was full time he was getting along, and he accordingly put on more steam, and with a regular but a terrible stroke he went for and collared him in the heavy ground between the quarter and half mile pole. It was interesting to watch him go upon him. We could see him when his nose shut out the little gap of daylight between the two horses, through which we saw the fence. Gradually the nose crawled to the flank, then reached the saddle girths, crept on to the shoulder, from the shoulder to the throat latch, until at last we could see but one rider, they were in such a direct line. Next "Counterproof's" snout was seen protruding beyond that of "Chicamauga," and it still kept going ahead until the "blue and blue" of his colors was distinctly seen two lengths in the lead at the third quarter. "Nelly" had no chance in the race now, as she was tailing behind dreadfully, and the pace was so fast that it was a matter of impossibility for her to close the gap. The half mile was made in 54 seconds. The horses were at the third quarter pretty well strung out, and they maintained their relative positions almost during the entire race. As they passed under the string for the first mile, "Counterproof" was in the lead about two lengths, and "Chicamauga" about four lengths ahead of "Nelly." The first mile was made in 1:48½. The horses continued running as they passed under the string, until the third quarter was reached, when "Chicamauga" made a brush for a front place. It was a good brush, and a game one, but the "Colloseus" stalled him off, aided considerably by a bolt made by "Chicamauga," when midway of the home stretch, from near the inside fence to the outside one. In this deviation from the regular track he must have lost several lengths, and had it not happened, there is no telling how the race would have ended; as it was, however, "Counterproof" won the heat and race, "Chicamauga" next, and "Nell Gwyne" last. Time, 3:42.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

A Man Falls from a Hotel Window, and is almost Instantly Killed.

Yesterday morning a most serious and painful accident occurred at the Green Tree House, on Shelby street, between Union and Gayoso. Mr. William Jackson, a saddler in the employ of Messrs. Smith & Co., who rooms in the second story of the Green Tree house, immediately over the office, yesterday morning, about nine o'clock, fell from the window upon the pavement below, breaking his neck and fearfully mangling his head and body. The cause of the fall can only be a matter of conjecture as no one was in the room with him at the time, and no one had any knowledge of the accident until Mr. Ringwald, proprietor of the hotel and one or two other gentlemen, hearing the noise of the fall, went out to learn the cause, when they found Mr. Jackson lying with his head upon the narrow brick walk, and his body in a doubled up position over the high plank curbing. A moment only was necessary to convince them that life was extinct. Mr. Jackson is a native of Toronto, Canada, but has resided here for twelve or fifteen years past. He was for a number of years employed in the establishment of N. P. Lewis, but for the last two or three years had been in the employ of Moores, Smith & Co., and left there Tuesday evening at the usual hour, and paid a visit to his brother, a young gentleman who has charge of the circulation of the Bulletin, where he remained till about nine o'clock. He was about thirty-five years old, and unmarried. Some five or six years ago he fell down a flight of stairs in the Blythe building, fracturing his skull, since which time he has been subject to fits, and from which he has never entirely recovered. Coroner Collins was sent for and a jury summoned, who rendered a verdict in accordance with the facts above.

CANE PRESENTATION.—An affair of this kind came off last night at the residence of Captain Widrig, the Captain himself being the recipient. It was a good will offering to the Captain from his numerous fishing friends, and was a splendid piece of workmanship. The presentation speech was made by Colonel Cotton, and feelingly responded to by the Captain. After which a collation was partaken of, and the champagne corks flew indiscriminately about the room. A band of music was in attendance, and an impromptu hop was organized, and there was a pleasant time generally.

BOARD OF MAYOR AND ALDERMEN.

A Called Meeting Yesterday Morning.

The Message of the Mayor.

At a called meeting of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen yesterday morning, there were present his Honor Mayor Lofland, and Aldermen Halbert, Ruffin, Johnson, Shaw, Amis, Lemon, Brown, Powers and Glancey.

The meeting was called to order by the Chairman, when the following message from the Mayor was read:

MAYOR'S MESSAGE.
MAYOR'S OFFICE, November 13, 1867.
To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen:

GENTLEMEN: At your meeting on the — day of October last, sundry resolutions in relation to retrenching the expenses of the city, were referred to appropriate committees, but no report was made at your last meeting on the subjects referred. The failure to report, I presume, grew out of the difficulty to get committees together during the prevalence of the recent sickness in the city. The subject is of such importance that I have deemed it proper to convene the Board in special session to consider the resolutions, and will take the liberty of making some remarks and suggestions thereto. I will review the recommendations I have made on several previous occasions, to discharge the entire street force, and sell the teams and carts, and turn over to the Metropolitan Police Department the chain gang. The Police Commissioners have the power to raise the means to defray the expenses of the chain gang. This force was turned over to the city by the Commissioners, upon condition that the city agreed to pay the expense of maintaining it. It costs from ten to twelve hundred dollars per month in cash to keep it up. This amount paid in scrip is more than the city should pay. We cannot get an equivalent in services for the amount paid out. The arrangement with the Commissioners was agreeable to all parties, and worked well as long as we could pay the expense of keeping the force without such enormous sacrifices as have now to be made. I would also suggest the discharge of the Sanitary force under pay of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen. The cartage furnished Taylor, McBean & Co., under their old contract, cost the city from six to eight thousand dollars per month. This is charged to the property owners; but a small portion, however, is collected. The property owners generally, refuse to pay on one plea or another. I would suggest that the contract with Taylor, McBean & Co. be so modified as to embrace the grading in their charge against the property owner as is done under their last contract, and that the contract be so changed that the city portion of the work may be paid for in paying bonds, as provided in the late contract. I make these suggestions because I have reason to believe that the contractors will consent to such modifications. At your last meeting, the appropriations amounted to $53,000; this, paid in scrip, will amount to $132,000 at the present rate. I cannot consent, without the direct order of your honorable body, to issue scrip at this rate to pay your entire appropriations.

The Fire and Hospital departments are absolute necessities, and ought to be maintained.

All claims hereafter should be paid in scrip, at its face value, and salaries and wages of employees should be fixed on this basis.

The mode of paying scrip at its cash value certainly does not meet the views of those who advocated that system. Would it not be well to authorize the issuance of twelve months notes, bearing six per cent. interest, for ledger balances and scrip? With a proper system of retrenchment, strictly observed, our floating debt can be paid off in one year, and a considerable amount of scrip may soon be retired in those twelve months notes.

I will call your attention to another subject, not of a financial character, but one of very great concern to all who have an interest in the general welfare. Last winter the Legislature amended the city charter, requiring every voter to cause himself to be registered in the ward in which he lives, at least three days before any municipal election. This law gave general satisfaction, and has always been regarded as a great protection to the purity of the ballot box.

I see from a report of the proceedings of the Legislature that a bill has been introduced and passed on its second reading, to repeal this clause in the charter. I propose that you memorialize the Legislature not to repeal this law. I cannot conceive why any man who regards the welfare of the city can advocate its repeal. It deprives no citizen of his vote, but protects him against the imposition of those men who have no right to vote. The same principle is incorporated in the laws of many other cities both North and South, and will work well in Memphis as elsewhere. I regard it as very important to our welfare, and have telegraphed to our members of the Legislature requesting them to delay action on the subject until your action can be made known to them. And surely the Legislature, if respectfully requested, will pay some regard to a properly expressed opinion of this Board on a subject deemed of so much importance.
W. O. LOFLAND, Mayor.

After the reading of the message, Alderman Johnson offered a resolution in reference to the system of retrenchment as set forth in the first part of the Mayor's message, and also one to memorialize the Legislature not to repeal the registration clause in the city charter.

Alderman Shaw moved, as an amendment, that the resolutions be taken up separately, which was adopted.

The following was then put before the Board, and adopted:

WHEREAS, The financial condition of the city does not justify, at present, the extension of improvements and the large increase of debt consequent upon the depreciation of her credit; therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Board of Aldermen, That they adopt the suggestions of the Mayor, in his message, in reference to retrenchment; and the Mayor and Finance Committee be and are hereby empowered by the Board to curtail the expenses of the city in every department, if necessary, and in such a manner as they may deem best for the interests of the city, under its present embarrassments, and report their action at the next meeting of this Board.

The following resolution, by Alderman Johnson, was next read and adopted:

Resolved, further, That the Mayor and three members of this Board be empowered to memorialize the Legislature of this State against the repeal of the registration law in relation to voters of this city in municipal elections, that the fraud heretofore practiced by illegal votes may be prevented in the future elections.

Alderman Shaw said he would oppose the memorial, to preserve his consistency. He had advocated the repeal of that law because he thought it to the interest of the city to have it repealed. They had so much registration law that people were becoming to have a repugnance toward registration, and if the present system were carried on, the election would amount to nothing more than a farce. He learned that the registration books had been ready some thirteen days, and that less than one hundred had registered themselves during that time. Unless the law should be repealed, the election would be carried by a few who would monopolize the ballot. Further, he had doubts about the Legislature paying any attention to a memorial from this Board. He had gone to Nashville to secure the extension of the city limits, with authority from the Board of Mayor and Aldermen to pledge the support of the Metropolitan Police, and that his bill would have passed, but the action of the Board here, in refusing to support the police force, and saying, by their action, we do not care for our pledge, when the news came defeated the bill.

Alderman Ruffin differed with Alderman Shaw. The reason the people did not register, he said, was because they expected the repeal of this law; which, if effected, would put the judges of elections to the greatest trouble in challenging voters to prevent persons from voting in the ward in which they did not live. He thought the Legislature would treat with proper respect any message from the Board. He understood that by recent or contemplated action of the Legislature, voters are not to be interrogated at the polls at all; and if such be the case, the purity of the ballot box could not be maintained without registration.

Several Aldermen thought the discussion a waste of time, as the Legislature would probably give it no consideration any how.

After a good deal of discussion, the vote was taken, with the following result;

Ayes—Ruffin, Lemon, Powers, Johnson, Glancy, Amis, Brown, Hill and O'Donnell.

Noes—Shaw.

Aldermen Johnson, Ruffin and Amis were then appointed a committee to prepare the memorial, and, after a few minutes' absence, returned and offered the memorial they had prepared, which, on motion, was adopted, the voting as before.

An account from Dr. Libby was presented, and, on motion of Alderman Shaw, allowed, and ordered to be paid.

An ordinance in regard to curbing the streets was offered by Alderman Johnson, passed on its first reading, and afterward, by a suspension of the rules, on its final reading.

The Board then adjourned.

THE NEW MEMPHIS.—Lotta again filled the house last night, and the theater presented somewhat the appearance of the olden time. In "Captain Charlotte," as Charlotte Clopier, Lotta was good, as it is a character which exactly suits her; and during its progress she was uproariously applauded. In "Family Jars" we cannot say as much for her. We do not think that Irish characters are her forte, and, for our own part, we do not want to see her in one; neither could we see the appropriateness of introducing a banjo solo, and an approximation to an "essence" dance, when she was playing the character of a girl supposed to have just come from Tipperary, where banjos are not quite so plentiful as they are in this country. Lotta must cease trenching on consistency, or her popularity will be short lived. If the banjo solo and break-down must be given—and we see no way to avoid it—let us have them between the pieces. With the exception of what we have mentioned, the most critical could take no exception to her; and we give these gentle hints in no spirit of unkindness, but for her own benefit. The Bambinelli of Mr. Ellerton was just so so, while his Delph was decidedly mediocre. He walked through the whole of it. The St. Leon of Mr. Shirley France, was creditable, although not done as well as we have seen it. To-night the same bill will be produced, and no doubt the house will be crowded.

MAGNIFICENT ESTABLISHMENT.—There is on exhibition at the confectionary store of B. Rocco, corner of Main and Adams streets, one of the most beautiful pieces of workmanship we have ever seen—a splendid palace, constructed in a most ingenius and elegant manner, of candy. It occupies the whole show window, and is one of the most beautiful and attractive features of that portion of the city. Large crowds are attracted to this fine confectionary establishment by this window, and when they enter the store they do not fail to find the largest and best selected stock of confectionaries in the city. Every thing in the confectioner's line will always be found here at the most reasonable rates, and of the very best quality. Country merchants and citizens wishing to make purchases in this line cannot find a better place to promptly and satisfactorily supply their wants than at B. Rocco's, corner of Main and Adams streets. He has also received a large supply of the best Malaga grapes, which he will sell cheap. Give him a call. tf

A PURCHASER WANTED.—We know of an opportunity for an enterprising printer, or other person, wishing to enter into the printing business, to procure one of the best country newspaper and job offices in the State. The newspaper has a paying advertising patronage of fifteen columns, and the purchaser will be convinced that it is from no lack of patronage that the establishment is for sale. RIVER NEWS.

AVALANCHE OFFICE, THURSDAY, November 14.

BUSINESS—WEATHER—RIVERS.

Weather clear and cool. The river continues unchanged with five feet scant at Point Pleasant, which is the shoalest point between here and Cairo. At Cairo the river was rising slowly. A swell was looked for out of Wabash and Tennessee rivers which will improve the lower Ohio. The Ohio is rising slowly at Cincinnati, with six feet to Louisville, and four feet from Louisville down. White and Arkansas continue low, with no improvement to notice in the channel depth of water.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Business on the levee was a little better yesterday than on any day of the preceeding week. There were a larger number of boats at the landing than we have seen for several months past, the R. E. Lee and Great Republic being of the number. The levee almost looked as in days of yore. The movement of these large boats, as well as the other but smaller packets, indicates that business is reviving and freights increasing. The Great Republic has lost nothing in her appearance since she was here last. She is still the same magnificent floating palace she was the first day she floated grandly and majestically into this port last year. Her appointments and equipments still retain all their superb excellence, finish and comfort, and offer inducements to the traveling public rarely ever obtained on any river in the world. Captain Donaldson treads the roof, the same genial, polite, attentive and careful gentleman he has ever been. Captain Sam. Barr and St. Clair Thomason preside with their usual dignity and suavity in the office. The Great Republic is now at the wharf boat, receiving freight for New Orleans and all way points. She leaves to-day at three o'clock, but on her return will enter the trade from Memphis to New Orleans as the regular alternate Saturday packet; hence, she will leave this port again next Saturday week.

The Atlantic and Mississippi Steamship packet, Julia, bound for New Orleans with two barges in tow, seems to be quite unfortunate this trip. She sunk one of her barges above Cairo, and sunk the remaining one in Eckles' bend, on Tuesday. The freight on the barge was partially damaged. Barge business has not been a success with the Atlantic and Mississippi Steamship monopoly. Insurance agents and consignees will soon put an embargo on this mode of transportation. "Nearly every boat of this wonderful institution have delivered their cargoes in New Orleans under protest for the past three months.

The R. E. Lee arrived from Cairo at noon. She added here a few lots of freight and cotton, and left last night for New Orleans.

The little stern-wheel towboat, Resolute, struck a log at Alton Island, Sunday night, and sunk in twelve feet water. She was owned by Captain W. A. Adams, and of little value.

The side-wheel towboat, Bon Accord, bound from Cairo to St. Louis with a tow of lumber, struck a rock on the chain below Thebes, and sunk to her boiler decks. The Bon Accord was owned by Captain Peter Conrad. The Bon Accord, like the resolute, was very old, having been launched in 1848, although partially rebuilt several times since.

The Empire, Captain King, leaves to-day at five p.m. for Louisville.

The Berths, from New Orleans for Cincinnati, passed up yesterday.

The Gleaner, Captain Fenwick, leaves to-day at five p.m. for the Arkansas river and way points. She is a No. 1 boat, and in charge of clever and reliable officers.

The steamer Victory, bound down, sunk a hay barge at Horn Lake.

The Ida sunk a barge at Ozark island.

The Mepham brought up about 800 barrels of damaged flour for St. Louis.

The R. E. Lee laid over until four o'clock this morning, to go over President's island bar.

The Mepham left at 11 p.m.

The Evansville Journal of Monday has the following:

River matters are vastly improved, and there was a good show of business on the levees Saturday morning. The storm during Friday night was terrific on the river, and boats had to seek shelter under high banks, where practicable, or lie to with head to the wind. The Cobwebb was blown from her moorings at the coal mines above, and driven across the river, but sustained no damage. The Silver Spray arrived at ten o'clock. About half-past seven o'clock Saturday morning the steamer Peerless, Captain Huston, from Cincinnati for Arkansas river, struck a log, at Scuffletown, crushing her hull badly, and causing her to sink rapidly in about five feet water. She lies straight up and down the river, and slightly careened, with one guard under about three inches, and the other one eight or ten inches above. She had 300 tons of freight, 100 of which, in her hold, is damaged. Captain Huston, Captain Leeds, the pilot, and others of her officers and crew, came to the city on the Silver Spray, for assistance, and entered protest. Captain Huston thinks she can be readily raised, and was negotiating with the Curlew and Mr. Cavender, of the dry dock, to go to her assistance. If raised, she will go into the dock here.

The St Louis Republican of Tuesday says: The weather yesterday morning was decidedly cool, and reminded one very forcibly of the near approach of winter. Captain Hill, of the Lucy Bertram, in yesterday from Keokuk, reports a snow storm of two hours' duration below Hannibal. Business opened with moderate activity. The following are the rates of freight to New Orleans established by the Captains' Association, viz: Alcohol, ale, beer, coal oil and whisky, per bbl $1; krout and vinegar per bbl $2; flour, apples and onions, per bbl $1; beans, bran, bagging, bacon, hay, lead, lard, shorts, shipstuff, wheat, rye and barley, per 100 lbs 55c; corn per sack 60c; oats per sack 65c; candies, onions, potatoes and soap, per 100 lbs 60c; eggs and uncovered hemp per 100 lbs 75c; covered hemp per 100 lbs 65c; dry goods and tobacco per 100 lbs $1; linseed and lard oil per bbl $2 25; tobacco in hhds and machinery as per contract; horses $12; mules $10; cattle $11@12; two year olds $8; yearlings $6; calves 4; sheep $1 50; turkeys and geese per dozen $2 50. The river is again on the decline, although slowly. The Missouri is almost essentially "played out," and beyond reporting. A slight rise is reported in the Illinois, but almost too late to be of any material service to the boating interest.

The Mary E. Forsythe leaves to-day for New Orleans.

The Louisville leaves for New Orleans at four p. m. to-morrow.

Captain James S. Smith, a well known Arkansas river boatman, has taken charge of the light draft steamer Last Chance, and is now loading for Little Rock and Fort Smith.

Captain John M. Gilham left yesterday on the steamer Kate Kinney, for New Orleans, where he will take charge of the Red river packet Iron City.

The Cincinnati Commercial of Tuesday says:

The weather was changeable yesterday. The day opened with a little snow and rain, clearing off cool at noon, with a stiff breeze from the northwest all day, and cold enough for more frost last night. At Pittsburg, there was only twenty-four inches, and falling last night. Here, it is about on a stand hence to Louisville, with six and a half feet in the channel.

Captain Frank Vinson, of the well known house of Vinson & Donahue, Memphis, left for home last evening on the Louisville packet.

Mr. R. H. Woolfolk, of the house of Sherly, Woolfolk & Co., Louisville, and Mr. Charles H. Clarke, of the Louisville Courier, were in the city yesterday, on business connected with the Board of Trade. Charlie is a veteran of the Louisville press, and is looking hale and hearty. The machinery of the C. E. Hillman was yesterday sold to T. G. Gaylord & Co. Captain John B. Davis, of the Memphis and White river mail packet company, arrived from Memphis yesterday. We suppose he is looking for a fine sidewheel packet to take the place of the Rowena. The Robert Moore, just after leaving the Maysville wharf boat, collided with the towboat Liberty No. 4. One of the Moore's engines was damaged, and she laid up for repairs. During the storm on Friday night, while the J. W. Garrett was laying at Lawrenceburg, a deck hand of the boat fell overboard and was drowned before assistance could be rendered.

The Louisville Courier of Tuesday says: The Captain's Benevolent Association held their regular meeting yesterday morning. Captain Sam. Montgomery of the steamer Dexter, and Captain A. M. McGill, of the Belle Lee, were elected members of the above association. A committee of three, consisting of Captains A. McGill, J. S. Neal and Sam. Montgomery, were appointed to revise the statute of the association in regard to tonnage. The rates of freight on stock to New Orleans were fixed as follows: Mules, per head, $10; horses, per head, $12; sheep, per head, $1 50; cattle, per head, $12 to $14.

COMMERCIAL.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE, THURSDAY, November 14, 1867.

There was a fair trade doing yesterday in the general markets. The streets and levee presented an active appearance. A large number of country dealers in the city, making purchases. Business is rapidly improving, and in a few days we will be able to report a brisk trade in all the markets. The money stringency places an embargo on trade, but as cotton is coming in more freely, we hope soon to report monetary affairs in a less pressing condition, and that new life has been given to commercial circles. Receipts of produce and provisions are equal to the requirements. Provisions are weak, with a steady decline in prices. Produce continues firm; corn, oats and hay ruled dull with prices unchanged.

COTTON—The market yesterday was steady, with a limited inquiry. Holders were offering freely, but unwilling to sell at buyers' rates. Sales for the day foot up small; middling, 15½@16; low middling, 14¾@15. At 11 a.m. the Liverpool market of the 13th was reported dull, with prices tending downwards; uplands, 8¾d; Orleans, 8⅞d. TEXAS TONIC SYRUP
A Vegetable Compound for the Rapid and Never Failing Cure of CHILLS & FEVER OR FEVER & AGUE
Every Poison has its Antidote---Every Disease has its Cure!

THE people of the Mississippi Valley, and throughout the entire South have long felt the necessity for, and want of, a SAFE, CERTAIN AND RELIABLE REMEDY, as a substitute for Quinine, Strychnine, and other noxious Drugs, for the cure of Fever and Ague, or Chills and Fever. We claim, and the results will show, and hold ample testimony to every unprejudiced mind, that the Texas Tonic Syrup has supplied this want and accomplished this purpose. Its Tonic, Alterative and Antiseptic qualities are such that no possible harm can possibly be discovered in its effects. Upon its own merits, therefore is it sustained. A single trial is all that is needed to stamp this remedy as the greatest specific of the age.
The ingredients of which this Medicine is composed are simple productions of nature abounding upon certain streams in the State of Texas, and were ever used by the Aborigines of that State as a specific for Fevers of all kinds, and especially Fever and Ague, which they never failed to cure.
A celebrated physician, acquainted with these facts, has furnished us his theory upon this important subject, and hence the product properly named TEXAS TONIC SYRUP, which we now offer to the public as a specific and POSITIVE cure for Fever and Ague, or Chills and Fever, no matter of how long standing.
Having had indubitable evidence of its prompt and certain effects from the testimony of a multitude of respectable citizens, we shall not hesitate to recommend this preparation in all cases of Fever and Ague and Chills and Fever; indeed, from the facts in our possession of its virtues, we know that no cure will fail where the directions are strictly complied with. It is pleasant to the taste and the cheapest Medicine in the world. Therefore, in truth, it may be declared the day is not far distant when it must be appreciated and used in every household, where Fever and Ague or Chills and Fever is found to exist.

FINLEY'S CHURN DASHER
Got one of them yet? Got one of what, Sir?

Why, one of the "Finley Churn Dashers."
Why do you ask me that question, sir?
BECAUSE one of them is needed, no doubt, and that badly, among your household conveniences, that the laborious and troublesome item of churning may become an agreeable recreation to the ladies, upon whom such duties usually devolve.
What's the Article? What's the description? What's it do, pray, sir?
Well, it is simply two screw propeller wheels attached to the lower end of a staff or handle which is placed in the "old fashioned" wooden or tub churn, and worked in the same manner precisely as the "old dasher;" these two wheels revolve rapidly and in counter directions at every up and down movement of the "Dasher," completely disengaging and cutting the cream into the minutest particles; while at the same time by aid of the "air beds" in each division of the wheels, keeps the whole bulk of the cream supplied with constant currents of fresh air, thus securing by the simplest process the true principles of "Good Butter Making."
Well, sir, is the thing simple—very simple!
Why, so very simple when SEEN, that not a word of explanation is necessary. Why "Biddy," "Aunt Dinah," or the eight year old child can both UNDERSTAND and USE it, and couldn't for their lives imagine any other purpose for it.
Is it Durable and Substantial, sir?
It is made of the best Sheet Zinc—will not rust—strong—neat, and with ordinary care, will last as long as you and your grand children's children.
Long enough. Well, my friend, does it make GOOD BUTTER and QUICK!
It does not only make GOOD BUTTER, but about ONE-FOURTH MORE, to a given amount of cream, under like circumstances of quantity and temperature, and in about ONE HALF THE TIME required by the use of the "old Dasher." Am, however, quite ready to confess that it will NOT make Butter so QUICK as the boasted "Five Minute" and other "Lightning" Churns which we have in use, but it is very plain and clearly proved rapid operation of such Churns produce only a MASS OF SOFT, LARDY, UNINVITING STUFF, instead of those RICH, GRAINY, WAXY, FIRM and LIVELY QUALITIES which constitute REAL GOOD BUTTER.
Well, sir, I have one of the "old fashioned" Churns—an old family relic of several generations past, and do I understand you that nothing more is required than one of the "FINLEY DASHERS?"
Nothing else whatever to complete the SIMPLEST, CHEAPEST, and MOST SATISFACTORY CHURNING APPARATUS that the world has yet produced.
Well, friend, once more—excuse me, sir—right well pleased, but a little suspicious. Can't help it. Are you sure this is not one of the Yankee humbugs—one of the "Machine Nutmegs," or one of the "Hub of the Universe Hams" sort of tricks; such hams that would, to look upon, bring a "broad guage" grin to the phiz of the most fastidious epicure—but with somewhat of a change in the "programme and scenery" when casting a sly peep at the cook after many fruitless efforts to slice a broil or two. Ugh! such looks and such "tonguing" as all understand which have been "thusly done for."
Methinks I discover a mutual sympathy, a similarity of experience and a similar determination to avoid all humbugs, especially in that "Yankee" order. My friend, "FINLEY'S DASHER" is all humbug—not a bit of it, sir. 'Tis a "home invention," and will, upon its own true merits, win its way into every household in the land, North and South. The Dasher is open to competition, and for "common sense," every day practical use and household economy, we say to Yankee or anybody else, BEAT IT IF YOU CAN.

Remember, that the retail price has been fixed at FOUR DOLLARS each, everywhere; and that the proprietor intends to hold and exercise the exclusive right to the manufacture and sale of the Dasher for the whole United States, and which cannot therefore be obtained through any other than authorized agencies.
Remember, that the wholesale price to Agents has been fixed at a figure to insure a large profit to such Agents as may handle it with industry and zeal, and with such agents can, with a cash capital of from one hundred to one thousand dollars, make more money in less time, with less trouble, and with less risk than many other kind of investment you with thousands of dollars invested in other pursuits.
Remember, that active, stirring, energetic men, who are willing to "pull off coat and roll up sleeves," CAN, with a small capital, realize one hundred per cent. profit on every thirty to sixty day's [illegible] ... Away, then, with complaints of "hard times," "no employment," "no situations." Come and get employment and good pay—employment for thousands—employment in a pleasant and highly profitable pursuit. The field of operation is as wide as the whole country ... THE HELLS.

NOT BY EDGAR A. POE.

Hear the echoes from the Hells—
Baden Hells!
What a tale of selfishness their recollection tells!
How noble fortune battles
With the balls that rolls and rattles
On its devilish career!
While the coins that overprinkle,
All the numbers seem to twinkle,
With a chaper and a sneer,
Keeping time, time, time,
In a sort of ruined rhyme,
To the hum of speculation that annually swells
From the Hells, Hells, Hells—
From the Hunters and the Punters of the Hells.

Hear the merry, laughing Hells—
Baden Hells!
Ringing out their calls to happiness like wedding bells,
Blinding eyes with lust of gain,
Deadening hearts to others' pain,
With the molten gold and notes,
Calling out,
"We are misery's antidotes!
Come and clutch us!" o'er their poison beauty gloats
Longing doubt—
How the air resounding fills
With the cries from out that Hall of Cure for Ills!
How the swells
At the wells
Dreams of health, of wealth; how each tells
Of the craving that impels
To the winning and the sinning,
Of the Hells, Hells, Hells,
To the losing and abusing of the Hells.

Hear the losers at the Hells—
Hamburg Hells!
What an end of dread despondency their mein foretells!
When fortune turns her back,
And the promised Red looks Black,
And the Black grows Red with shame,
As he hears its worshipped name;
All is lost
In a timorous appealing to the mercy of Lebanc;
In a sad expostulation with the croupiers of Lebanc.
Paying higher, higher, higher,
With a maddening desire,
And a desperate endeavor
Now—now to win or never,
Though it love and honor cost,
Of the Hells, Hells, Hells!
What a tale their echo tells
Of despair!
How they cling to Black and Red!
What a tremor they outspread
Of the loving hearts that wait to hope at home.
Yet the year it fully knows
By the curses,
Or the purses,
How the fortune ebbs and flows!
How the scandal stinks and smells
By the sinking of the swelling in the budget of the Hells!

Hear the groaning in the Hells!
Baden Hells!
Every coin in hope thrown down,
Each florin that it crowns,
Is a groan,
And the croupiers, dressed in sable,
Sitting down before the table,
And who dealing, dealing, dealing,
In that well known monotone,
Coldly clear in the feeling,
That their human heart is stone!
To each one they call the cash,
They go by some machinery,
Without soul;
And their master takes the tolls,
While the ball it rolls and rolls,
Rolls
And rattles in the Hells;
And each ball no longer swells
At the Pean of the Hells;
For he hears above the echo of the Hells
The knells, knells, knells,
Of the Hells.
In the fast approaching time,
When ruin, lust and crime
Will be driven from the wells
In the downfall of the Hells—
Of the Hells, Hells, Hells
To the moaning and the groaning of the Hells!

TENNESSEE LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

MONDAY, November 11.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Huntington.

The following new bills were introduced, passed first reading, and referred to appropriate committees:

Mr. Underwood: A bill to incorporate the Webster Polemic and Literary Society, in Weakley county.

Mr. Norman: A bill to change the time of holding the Circuit Courts in Henry and Henderson counties.

Mr. Smith: A bill to incorporate the Overton Hotel and Trust company.

Mr. Echol: A bill to increase the jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace upon notes of hand to sums of two thousand dollars, and upon open or book accounts to the sum of five hundred dollars, and to increase fees of Magistrates one hundred per cent.

Mr. Rodgers: A bill to exempt honorably discharged Union soldiers from payment of poll tax.

Mr. Nelson: A bill to pay a premium of twenty-five cents each for killing owls and hawks.

RETRENCHMENT.

The Senate took up the calendar, the first bill being one to reduce the military expenses of the State. This bill repeals all laws authorizing pay to the military staff of the Governor, except for services during actual hostilities or rebellion, and imposes upon the Adjutant General the duties of private Secretary to the Governor, with a salary of $125 per month.

Mr. Smith offered an amendment in lieu of the bill, abolishing the offices of Adjutant and Quartermaster General.

Mr. Fuson said if the time has come to dispense with these officers, we should do it, and called upon Senator Smith to state the reasons why he offered the proposition.

Mr. Smith replied that the bill had been put forward as a measure of retrenchment, that he had imbibed freely of that spirit, and if he could be satisfied that such was its true intent, he was willing to go with the Senate, and retrench in earnest. But he really considered the bill as a measure to force certain men out of office, and to foist others less competent upon the Governor. Instead of being a measure of retrenchment, he looked upon it as raising the issue whether the State militia was any longer necessary. If it was, the officers should possess the best qualifications. Those in the service had the confidence and respect of the Governor. The militia bill was passed in good faith, to protect the loyal people, black and white, in their rights. Was it longer necessary? He thought it was. The events in Tipton county proved to him the time had not come to dispense with the militia. The Governor had already dispensed with all except two of his staff, and these he confided in and respected. But there was still something back of this bill. There were men at daggers points in the capitol, perhaps, but if that were so, it should not influence him. It mattered not to the people in other parts of the State. The simple question now is, whether the militia is longer necessary? He thought it was, and the bill would only have the effect to displace good men, and foist upon the Governor men who were unacceptable, and who would be incompetent to the duties; for the salary was inadequate to secure the services of competent men. The result of the passage of the bill would be to get men to perform these services unfit to discharge the duties. Mr. Smith continued that he did not understand why a personal measure of this sort should be introduced. A few days ago the Senate had by a vote expressed itself unanimously for Governor Brownlow. He had not voted for him, but when he was elected the vote was made unanimous. He would like to know why this measure was put forward to embarrass him.

Mr. Garner replied that the Senator from Shelby (Mr. Smith) professed to have offered his amendment in lieu in good faith. He was disappointed that the Senator had not argued it in good faith. Did the Senator hold that only the few men who now surrounded the Governor, were competent to discharge the duties of these positions? That was his argument. The Senator also contended that the Legislature was unanimous for Governor Brownlow for United States Senator. Mr. Garner denied this, saying he was not for him for United States Senator, and would not be to-day, though he had no hostility to Governor Brownlow.

Mr. Mathews (the author of the bill), disclaimed any personal intent or application. He opposed the amendment in lieu, and said there might be something behind the bill, but that something was in the breasts of its opponents. After further remarks in reply to the Senator from Shelby (Mr. Smith) he contended that competent men could be had for the salaries proposed by the bill. He thought it was right and ought to pass.

Mr. Cate moved to recommit the bill and amendment to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Mathews objected, saying the bill had once been before the committee and reported upon. It had been before the Senate a month, and he was anxious that it should be disposed of, and sent to the House.

Mr. Carey said, if the bill was to be recommitted, that he desired to submit an amendment which should go to the committee with the bill and pending amendment. It was to the effect that the annual salary of the Secretary of State and Controller be fixed at the sum of $2,500, and that they should keep a strict account of their fees of office, and pay the same over to the Treasury. Mr. Carey observed that it had been stated that the people of Tennessee had been grievously taxed, and it was desired that they should be relieved. If this was true, he thought the pruning knife should cut wherever a surplus expenditure was found. He stated that it was brought out in debating this bill on its second reading that the fees of the Secretary of State, for signing bonds alone, was $9,000 or upwards, and this besides his salary and other fees received by him, all of which are retained by him, when they should be turned over to the State Treasury, after deducting a reasonable salary to be fixed by law. Mr. Carey offered the amendment, to go to the committee with the matter then before the Senate, if it should take that course, and for the purpose of relieving the people of a portion of that taxation, of which we hear so much.

Mr. Mathews moved to lay the motion to recommit on the table, which motion failed by a tie vote; and then the bill and amendments were recommitted to the Military Committee.

SENATE BILLS ON THIRD READING.

The following bills were then considered and past on third reading:

To encourage immigration to this State—providing for a Board of Immigration, etc.

To change the line between Smith and Putnam counties.

To incorporate the Caney Fork Manufacturing company—Amos Lawrence and others.

To incorporate the Eagle Mining company of Tennessee.

For the benefit of registers in the land offices in the mountain districts—authorizing them to keep their offices at their residences.

For the benefit of the Penitentiary.

To incorporate the Masonic Orphan's Home.

To incorporate the Scientific and Classical Institute at Riceville.

To authorize the Jews of Nashville and Davidson county to purchase a burial ground and erecting a synagogue.

CONVENTIONAL INTEREST.

The motion entered some time since by Mr. Elliott, to reconsider the vote rejecting Senate bill fixing the legal rate of interest at seven per cent., and authorizing a conventional rate as high as twelve per cent., when the same is contracted for in writing, was taken up, and the motion prevailed. The bill was then before the Senate on second reading. Mr. Elliott proceeded to argue in favor of the bill at some length.

Mr. Rodgers concurred in the views presented by Mr. Elliott, and spoke in favor of the measure.

The vote was then taken on the passage of the bill on the second reading, and it was rejected—ayes 8, noes 14.

Adjourned till nine a.m. to-morrow.

HOUSE.

NEW BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. Taylor: A resolution instructing the Judiciary Committee to investigate the laws with regard to the legality of paying State witnesses in suits begun prior to the war and dismissed during the early stages of the war; to report by bill. Passed.

Mr. Taylor: A resolution instructing members to furnish to the clerk the number and names of the papers for which they have subscribed, and directing that the Controller shall not pay for any papers not subscribed for. Passed.

Mr. Bowles: A joint resolution instructing the clerk to have printed two hundred and forty copies of the State Constitution in pamphlet form, for the use of the members. Adopted.

Mr. Bean: A bill to grant State aid to the Nashville and Decatur railroad. The bill directs the Governor to issue to said road three hundred thousand dollars in the bonds of the State of Tennessee, bearing six per cent. interest, and in every respect like the bonds issued to the various railroads, and upon the same terms and conditions.

The bill was accompanied by a memorial from the President of the road, setting forth the necessities of the road, and arguing that the best interests of the road and of the State required that the aid asked should be granted. The bill, with the memorial, was referred to the Committee on Incorporations.

The following bills were introduced, passed first reading and referred:

By Mr. Bean: A bill to incorporate the Maury County Manufacturing Company, for the purpose of manufacturing agricultural implements.

By Mr. Baker: A bill to amend the act authorizing the Governor to appoint a Superintendent of the capitol and capitol grounds.

By Mr. Wines: A bill to incorporate the Montgomery Savings Institution, at Clarksville.

By Mr. Brown: A bill to authorize the sheriff of Franklin county to appoint an additional deputy.

By Mr. Kirchival: A bill for the benefit of the Nashville and Charlotte turnpike company, authorizing them to remove the toll gate nearest the city back to its former location near Barrow's hill.

By Mr. Cordell: A bill to amend the act of May 24, 1865, amending the revenue laws of the State. The bill provides that the word "brokers," in the first section of said act, shall not apply to real estate agents or brokers.

THE CASE OF HULL.

Senate joint resolution, suspending S. J. Hull from the functions of Warden of the penitentiary, pending the investigation of the charges against said Hull, and authorizing the Directors to appoint an acting Warden for such time as may be occupied in such investigation, was taken up.

Mr. Bean thought that prudence required that the keys of the penitentiary should be placed in safe hands during the investigation. He was in favor of giving Mr. Hull a fair hearing and a full opportunity to clear himself of the charges made against him, but these charges were of a grave character. The Commissioners had declared that they had lost all confidence in him; there had been a fire which had cost the State $30,000, and a convict had recently escaped. It was charged that Mr. Hull was not without fault in this matter, and it was proper that the House should make safe the interests involved, while the truth of these charges was being inquired into. It would be no injustice to Mr. Hull. If Andrew should be impeached he hoped he would not be permitted to retain the reins of government during his trial, and on the same principle he was in favor of suspending Mr. Hull until the investigation should take place.

Mr. Doughty was not prepared to pass judgment upon the charges now made against Mr. Hull, but he remembered that last year charges were made against him which proved to be entirely unfounded, and the director who was involved in the difficulty proved to be entirely in the fault. He had known Mr. Hull as a brave and gallant soldier, and believed him to be an honorable man. The opposition to him last year he knew came from those who were the enemies of the Government, and he thought this might be the case now. At any rate, he was opposed to taking action which should condemn him in advance. He thought it would be time enough when the charges were proved. He was entitled to a fair hearing, and this should be given him before his removal or suspension.

The subject was further discussed by Messrs. Welsh and McFall in favor of the resolution, and Messrs. Bowles, Woodcock and others against it.

The resolution was finally concurred in.

Senate joint resolution, reviving the Tennessee State Agency at Washington, and authorizing and empowering the former State Agent to wind up the affairs of his office as soon as practicable. Rejected.

TAX ON WHISKY.

House resolution instructing Representatives in Congress to vote for a reduction of the tax on cotton, tobacco and whisky, a resolution having already passed requesting the removal or reduction of the tax on cotton and tobacco, these words were stricken from the resolution.

Mr. Ryder was opposed to asking Congress for a reduction of the tax on liquor. By asking too much we would likely fail to get anything. We had asked for the removal of the tax on cotton. This was what was most needed, and he was opposed to making any request which would defeat the success of this measure.

Mr. Agee thought that cotton should not absorb the legislation of the House. There were other interests that should not be forgotten. In his section of the State there was no cotton raised, and yet the interests of that section were as important as any other. One of these interests was the manufacture of whisky, and with the present enormous tax it was impossible to carry on the business. He hoped the resolution would pass.

Mr. Mynatt was in favor of the tax on whisky. He did not believe it did any body any good to drink whisky or liquor of any kind, and if any choose to indulge in the luxury, it was right that they should pay for it. Moreover, he did not believe in wasting the time of the House in passing resolutions instructing members of Congress to attend to their own business. They understood very well what the interests of the State required, and he was willing to trust them to look after these interests.

Mr. Meyers urged the passage of the resolution. It was impossible to prohibit the manufacture or sale and use of liquor by legislation, nor was it right to attempt to do so. In his section of the State they had been compelled to abandon the manufacture of whisky on account of the oppressive taxation, and the burden ought to be removed.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Federal Relations.

House adjourned until two p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

House resolution No. 69: To adjourn December 20th, 1867, to meet second Monday of November, 1868. Laid upon the table.

Senate bill No. 30: To repeal the joint resolution offering a reward for Isham G. Harris.

After considerable discussion the bill was passed. Ayes, 38; nays, 21.

HOUSE BILLS ON THIRD READING.

House bill No. 48: To repeal an act changing the line between Bedford and Marshall counties.

Amendments were adopted making some change in the line between Lincoln and Marshall counties, and also between Giles and Maury counties, and the bill passed.

House bill No. 97: To change the line between the counties of DeKalb and Cannon, and the bill passed.

House bill incorporating the Lebanon and Gallatin railroad was read, but before coming to a vote the House adjourned until nine a.m. to-morrow.

One Thing is Certain

THAT however widely great men may differ, there is a large majority of doctors, lawyers and divines throughout the South who do AGREE that Dr. Williams' Pulmonic Balsam of Wild Cherry and Wood Naptha is the only certain cure for Pneumonia, Asthma, Bronchitis, Diptheria, Coughs, Colds, Sore Throats, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of strength, Whooping Cough, Catarrh, Pleurisy, Difficult Breathing, and all diseases of the Chest and Lungs; and a certain and sure cure for Consumption in its early stages. That it cures ALL of the above enumerated diseases is a fact beyond controversy ... [illegible]

Dr. Tennent, of Marietta, Ga., a physician of deservedly high reputation as an able and experienced practitioner of Medicine, ... recommends it extensively in his practice.

Dr. E. M. Cohen, of Charleston, S. C., a gentleman of well known reputation, and a wholesale druggist and importer of drugs and medicines, recommends it in the highest terms and says it is exclusive of all other remedies, in his family, with the most satisfactory results.

And we might add even thousands of certificates of like results ... [illegible]

THE DISCOVERY OF THE AGE

NO material which has ever been discovered has affected greater benefits in the household economy than

McGIMSEY'S MAGIC SOAP.

It is a labor saving invention as well as an invaluable remedy in scurvy, scald head, eruptions of the skin and piles. Rust stains, grease removed from the hands, the teeth bleached and cleansed, plate and jewelry cleaned, stains effectually removed from carpets, furniture, clothes, etc. Every stain is done and cannot be changed with the greatest facility. ... It is the only known soap which will wash flannels with the ease of cotton or linen without felting or shrinking. All these important objects can be effected without injury to the skin or the most delicate fabric. It possesses no deleterious qualities whatever. The world is challenged to produce a soap which possesses so many valuable properties, and which is so innocuous and safe. It has a home without a rival or defies competition in any part of the world. It has become a necessity in Memphis, and its use is rapidly spreading throughout this south, and eventually will extend over the Western States, North and South America, Europe, Asia, Africa and Oceanica. Manufactured solely by C. F. McGIMSEY, Memphis, Tenn., and can now be found at any respectable grocery and drug store. The proprietor is determined that his manufacture shall keep pace with the rapidly extending demand for its use.

VICKSBURG, MISS., October 4, 1867.—In consequence of the prevalence of Yellow Fever in the city of Vicksburg, we deem compelled, by the duty we owe to ourselves, our family and employees, to postpone the second Preliminary Distribution of the Mississippi Agricultural, Educational and Manufacturing Aid Society from the 16th day of October to the 21 of November, 1867.

To give our patrons and the public at a distance the necessary time for renewal of certificates, the Third Preliminary Distribution will be drawn November 30th, and the Grand Scheme December 28th, 1867.

We trust that a kind and indulgent public will both excuse and approve of the above postponement.

Correspondents and persons ordering certificates are requested to direct their communications to the Secretary at Meridian, Miss., to which place our office is temporarily removed. An authorized agent will remain at Vicksburg to attend to any communications or orders for certificates.

W. D. LYLES, President.

ALBERT SANDEL, Secretary.

The drawing of the School Fund for Vicksburg and Jackson will be postponed from October 24th to November 12th, 1867.
